

MARK FOR REVIEW? YES NO

BACK

NEXT

Look at the picture of the seed.

The little hooks on the seed help the plant to spread its offspring because they help the seed to

- A be carried far by the wind
- B cling to the soil on which they land
- C stick to the fur of animals that pass by
- D absorb water until it roots in a new place